Today's readings at 9.15 and 11.00 am

First Reading

James 3.13-4.3,7,8a

A reading from the letter of James.

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace. Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

Gospel

Mark 9.30-37

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Notices

- Harvest Thanksgiving and Back to Church Sunday is on 27 September. We are collecting for USPG's work overseas. Please come prepared to give generously. And please make every effort to bring along a friend who hasn't been to the Cathedral before.
- Preserves Chutneys, jams and marmalade will be on sale in the Treacy Hall at coffee time next Sunday, Harvest Festival.
- Cathedral Coffee Mornings are expanding! Following the appointment of Catherine Mellin as Catering Manager, the Coffee Mornings will run from Tuesday to Saturday mornings from 9.30am to 2.30 pm serving morning coffee, light lunches and afternoon tea. Bring your friends and come and try the new menu as it grows.
- Catherine is settling in very well, but cannot run our coffee mornings single-handed and there are all sorts of opportunities to support this new work. She would love to have some help cooking on a Tuesday. If cookery is your passion, maybe you could offer to help one Tuesday a month, with preparation, baking etc. Please call in and see Catherine in the Treacy Hall, or telephone her on 01924 373923. We are also looking to fill a rota of volunteers to help serve and clear the tables and chat to our visitors. This is a vital ministry of welcome and hospitality. Obviously you can choose a time to suit your own diary, and there is no need to commit yourself to every week. Please let Catherine know if this is something that might be of interest to you.
- Volunteer Training Evenings – There will be three training evenings for both new and existing newcomers, bookshop and coffee morning assistants on Mondays 5, 12 and 19 October from 7.00 pm until about 8.45 pm. Everyone is welcome!
- Wedding – A warm invitation is extended to all members of the congregation to celebrate the marriage of Rod and Diane on Friday 2 October at 12 Noon and afterwards in the Treacy Hall. There is a retiring collection for the Georgian orphanage.
- The World's Biggest Coffee Morning Friday 25 September 9.30 am – 2.30 pm. This coffee morning will be held as part of 'The World's Biggest Coffee Morning event in aid of Macmillan Nurses Cancer Support. Any offers of cakes would be very welcome. Please contact Jill Hemingway 369652.
- Cursillo Do you want to know more about this exciting movement that helps us deepen the relationship between our faith and daily life? If so, please come to a cheese and wine party at the Deanery on Tuesday 6 October at 7.30 pm. Please tell Sue Ellis (01924 373923 or sue.ellis@wakefield-cathedral.org.uk) if you intend to come along. There is a leaflet at the back of the Cathedral which gives further details about Cursillo.
- Lecture about the Diocese October 14 by Kate Taylor 7.30pm in the Add Lib Gallery. From Mission Rooms to Team Ministries: the vicissitudes of the Diocese of Wakefield 1888-2009. In its 120 year history the Diocese has been driven to increase the number of churches followed by the problems resulting from over-large and expensive buildings, diminishing congregations and a shortage of clergy.
- Monument cleaning Volunteers needed for three cleaning days, from 10am to 4pm. Celia Kilner (Tel: 01484 685162) will be on hand to give guidance. The dates are Wednesday 14 October, Thursday 22 October and Tuesday 27 October.
- Cathedral Live 7 October. Last chance to book, closing date 25 September.
