First Reading

Hebrews 7.23 - end

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, and made perfect for ever.

Gospel

Mark 10.46 - end

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

- Thank you from Judith Woodhead - An enormous thank you to all people who responded to my appeal for the orphans of Musoma last week. I do not want those who were not at the 9.15 service to feel left out. At the wonderful supper, when our guests from Mara joined us, I discovered that there might be a shortfall in the £200 a month which we, as the Cathedral family, are committed to sending to Musoma for the support of orphans. The very day I had spent £7 on books which I didn't need. I just wanted them. I felt that if I could spend this money out of my "don't really need it" pot then I could give £5 a month to the Musoma fund I invited members of the congregation to join me. The response was terrific. If you want to be a part of this work please let Judy Barker, Annie Ledger or me know and we will add you to the list. "Whatever you do for one of the least of these you do for me," Jesus speaking in Matthew 25 v 40.
- Half Term Workshops Monday 26 October from 11.00-1.00 and 2.00-4.00. Make your own stained glass window. All ages welcome. Please contact Ali Bullivent 434484
- Tombola Suitable items for the tombola needed, please bring into Church in the next fortnight. Thank you .
