Next Sunday's Readings

Ephesians 4.1-16
John 6.24-35

Today's readings at 10.00 am

First Reading

Ephesians 3.14-end

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel

John 6.2-21

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Jesus, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.' When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

Notices

- Swine flu. Following medical advice, the Bishop has recommended the following actions during the present swine flu pandemic:
 - The sharing of the chalice at Holy Communion will be temporarily suspended. Only the president will receive;
 - The Eucharistic bread should not be received directly on the tongue but in the hand;
 - Refrain from sharing of the peace by handshake or a kiss;
 - To safeguard the more vulnerable members of the congregation, please stay at home if you feel unwell.The Bishop will be monitoring the situation and will issue further guidance in due course.

- Sunday Worship during the Summer. From now until 30 August there will be one sung celebration of the Eucharist at 10.00 am as our choir is taking a well-earned holiday. Our usual pattern of 9.15 am and 11.00 am will resume on 6 September.
- Evensong will be sung on Sunday the 2 August by the All Saints' Singers.
- Preserves. Jams (including new season strawberry jam), marmalades and chutneys will be on sale in the Treacy Hall at coffee time today.
- Heritage Open Weekend. If you have any old photographs of the Cathedral which could be used in a display during the Heritage Open Weekend 11-12 September, please contact Steve Simpson. We will be looking for volunteers to help with the weekend so please complete one of the forms at the back of the cathedral if you can help.
- Pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Next year in Jerusalem? Brochures of Canon John Holmes' next pilgrimage to the Holy Land 13-21 February 2010 are at the back of the Cathedral or ring him on 0113 2642667.
- Coffee Morning Manager. The Cathedral is looking to employ a Coffee Morning Manager. Details are available from the back of church or on the Cathedral website.
- Help needed - Following the wonderful help that Cathedral volunteers gave to 'Wholemeal', would anyone be able to help with another event for 'Year of the Child 2009' to be held at Silcoates School on 19 September? There will be a stewards meeting at Church House on 7 September at 7.00 pm, and help will be needed from 12.30pm – 6.00 pm on 19th. The event itself will start at 2.00 pm and the Bishop will celebrate The Eucharist at 4.30 pm. Please let Chris Haigh or Sue Robinson know if you can help and we will pass on your name and 'phone number to the Revd Richard Burge.
- Treacy Hall Kitchen. Following the refurbishment of the Treacy Hall kitchen, coffee mornings will resume on Friday and Saturday this week. A big thank you to Julie for painting the kitchen and toilets.
- German Market. For the German market in November/December, we hope to have a stall selling crafts and hand-made goods. If anyone would like to knit clothes or toys for the stall, please contact Penny Gray who has plenty of wool, patterns, etc.
