Next Sunday's Readings

Hebrews 10.11 – 14, 19 - 25
Mark 13.1 - 8

Today's readings at 9.15 and 11.00 am

First Reading

Hebrews 9.24 - end

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Gospel

Mark 1.14 - 20

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.' As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Notices

- Countdown to Copenhagen – Sunday 22 November 4pm with special guest speaker Margaret Sentamu. Please try to come to this service to show that Christian people care about climate change. And please fill in a Christian Aid action card (at the back of the Cathedral), which can be handed to our local MPs at the service.
- Cathedral Community weekend at the Sneaton Centre, Whitby 7-9 May 2010
The approximate cost (excluding transport) will be £115. There are reductions for young people. If you would like to go please contact Canon Michael Rawson.
- Cathedral Christmas Fayre 19 November – 21 December. We are looking for volunteers to help with the Coffee Mornings (Tuesday to Saturday). There are two time slots: 9 am to 12 noon or 12 noon to 3 pm. If you can help on any day during these times please speak to Rod Walker.
- Santa's Grotto for the Christmas Fayre. If anyone has any Santa, Fairy or Elf outfit hidden away could they please contact Julie or Diana.
- Would you like to be a sidesperson at the 11 am Sunday Eucharist or Evensong? If so, please have a word with one of the Churchwardens.

- Tombola Suitable items for the tombola needed, please bring to the Cathedral in the next fortnight. Thank you.
- The Cathedral Choir sang at St Thomas Church Fifth Avenue in New York City last Sunday. Recordings of both services, which sound stunning, are available to listen to for a few weeks at <http://saintthomaschurch.org/Stream.html> (You will have to register but they will not send you emails.)
- The Dean of Musoma Cathedral, Mara. Dean Jacob is studying at Cuddesdon this academic year and the college have contacted us to see whether anyone would like to offer him hospitality over the Christmas season. If anyone is keen to do this, can you please let Jonathan or Michael know.
- Coffee Morning Saturday 14 November 9.00am – 1.30pm. In aid of Robes and Vestments. Offers of help, cakes and bric-a-brac much appreciated. Thank you. Elsie Bouckley.
- During the German Market we hope to keep the Cathedral open on Sunday afternoons from the end of the 11 am Eucharist until Choral Evensong at 4.00 pm. If you would be willing to help on 22, 29 November and 13, 20 December please have a word with John Courtney or Peter Barber.
