Swine flu. Following medical advice, the Bishop (together with the Archbishops) has recommended the following actions during the present swine flu pandemic:

- The sharing of the chalice at Holy Communion will be temporarily suspended;*
- The Eucharistic bread should be received in the hand and not directly on the tongue;*
- We should refrain from sharing the peace by handshake and also shaking hands after the service;*
- To safeguard the more vulnerable members of the congregation, please stay at home if you feel unwell.*

The Bishop will be monitoring the situation and will issue further guidance in due course.

Today's readings at 10.00 am

First Reading

1 Kings 19,4-8

A reading from the first book of Kings.

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: 'It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, 'Get up and eat.' He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, 'Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.' He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God

Gospel

John 6.35,41-51

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus said to the crowd, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.' Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

please complete one of the forms at the back of the Cathedral.

Notices

- Driving into the Cathedral precinct. Access is now via the Bullring and exit via Cross Square. It is illegal to drive in through Cross Square – so please don't!
- Sunday Worship during the Summer. From now until 30 August there will be one sung celebration of the Eucharist at 10.00 am as our choir is taking a well-earned holiday. Our usual pattern of 9.15 am and 11.00 am will resume on 6 September.
- Pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Next year in Jerusalem? Brochures of Canon John Holmes' next pilgrimage to the Holy Land 13-21 February 2010 are at the back of the Cathedral or ring him on 0113 2642667.
- Help needed - Following the wonderful help that Cathedral volunteers gave to 'Wholemeal', would anyone be able to help with another event for 'Year of the Child 2009' to be held at Silcoates School on 19 September? There will be a stewards meeting at Church House on 7 September at 7.00 pm, and help will be needed from 12.30pm – 6.00 pm on 19th. The event itself will start at 2.00 pm and the Bishop will celebrate The Eucharist at 4.30 pm. Please let Chris Haigh or Sue Robinson know if you can help and we will pass on your name and phone number to the Revd Richard Burge.
- Voluntary Choir. On Sunday 16 August ... we are looking for singers for the morning service. Ability to sight read would be beneficial but not essential, but ability to sing in tune is a must! Meet in the song room at 9.00 am prompt if you would like to join in. Ladies should wear something smart, and gentlemen should wear suits, please. If you have any questions about this choir, contact Tom Moore on 07712 000375, or via e-mail Tom.Moore@wakefield-cathedral.org.uk
