

Today's readings at 9.15am and 10.55am

Reading: Jonah 3.1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, 'Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.' So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, 'Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Gospel: Mark 1.14-20

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.' As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Next week's readings: Hebrews 10.11-14,19-25 and Mark 13.1-8

The Notices

We have a couple of special services taking place in November. Next Sunday, during Choral Evensong (3.30pm) we will be installing Revd Canon Derek Walmsley as Residentiary Canon of the Cathedral, and licensing him as Diocesan Director of Ordinands – it would be nice to get a good crowd in to welcome him. Then on Sunday 29 November, also at 3.30pm, our Advent Carol Service is the point at which we say farewell to Canon Andi before she takes up her new post in Leeds – please come along to wish her well.

The numbers have been drawn for the November 2015 100 Club and the results are as follows: first prize this month goes to Sue Turmeau, second prize to Leonard Bartle, and third prize to Candi Nairn-Briggs. Congratulations, your cheques will be with you soon!

An update from Terry: The All Saints' Gift Fair was a brilliant success, many thanks to everyone who helped, baked cakes, manned stalls etc, it was much appreciated.

There will be a sale of jams, marmalade and chutney in the Treacy Hall this morning in between services.

Rotas – we are updating the names of the people who serve on the Sunday Rotas. Please sign the list if you read, intercede, or administer the chalice. We also need more Sunday welcomers.

Margaret Townend is still in need of prizes for the tombola event in aid of the clients at Wakefield Rent Deposit Scheme. The tombola will be held on Thursday 12 November. If you are able to donate any prizes, please give them to Margaret or any member of the Tuesday Fellowship Group. Alternatively ring Margaret 01924 372730 and she will arrange a collection. Thank you for your support.

The Cathedral Film Club – Tonight at 7.15pm, the second in our season of films in association with Cine North – ‘Woman in Gold’ starring Helen Mirren; the true story of a woman’s journey to reclaim her heritage and seek justice for her family. Tickets available on the door - £5.

Mothers’ Union – Our A.G.M. will take place on Monday 9 November at 8.00pm in the Treacy Hall, preceded by a Corporate communion on the Labryinth in the Cathedral at 7.00pm. Our December meeting will be a Christmas Lunch at Gaskell’s, and we do not meet in January, so our next Branch Meeting will be on Monday 8 February 2016.

‘A delicious novel: clever, witty and subtle’ so one critic described ‘Acts and Omissions’ by Catherine Fox – the first book the Cathedral Book Club are reading and will be discussing on Tuesday 10 November at 7.00pm at 2 Doctor Lane, Flockton. Next meeting will be at 15 Kingfisher Grove, Sandal on 15 December at 7.00pm and our book then will be ‘Cider with Rosie’ by Laurie Lee.

Bishop Tony’s Follow Me - Future Follow Me dates for your diary are 12 November, 4 February, 17 March and 12 May. Further details available from Caroline Asquith at caroline.asquith@westyorkshiredales.anglican.org or by calling her on 01924 371802.

Monday 16 November – Prayer and Meditation with Luke’s Gospel, led by Revd Dr David Peat at 2.30pm at the home of Annie Ledger, 2 Doctor Lane, Flockton, Tel 01924 848448.

The next meeting of the Wakefield Deanery Synod will be on Tuesday 17 November, 7.00pm for 7.30pm at St John’s Church in Wakefield. Wakefield City of Sanctuary are going to update us about the current refugee crisis and help us to think about how we can best respond with hospitality and in other ways as we expect refugees from Syria.

Christians Aware Event – Wednesday 18 November at 7.30pm in the Education Room. Maureen Hawksworth presents; ‘A Community School in Nepal’. Refreshments served from 7.00pm.

We will be holding interviews for the Canon Precentor post on Thursday 19 November. Candidates may be travelling a distance so, if you are able to offer accommodation for the evening of 18 November it would be most appreciated. Please see the Dean if you are able to help.

There will be a Ladies Lunch on Saturday 21 November at the Cedar Court Hotel, Wakefield, 12.00 noon for 12.30pm. The guest speaker is the loveable rogue Ross Barton, from ‘Emmerdale’. Tickets cost £35 which includes a three course lunch and coffee. Please see Terry for more information and tickets. Monies raised will go towards Project 2015.

A Memorial Service for the Revd Professor Roger Grainger RIP will be held on Saturday 28 November at St John’s C of E Church, St John’s Square, WFI 2QU at 1.00pm. The Bishop of Wakefield will be presiding.

If you would like to donate towards a leaving gift for Canon Andi, specially labelled envelopes are available on the Welcomers’ cupboard.

Canon Andi’s Licensing as Priest-in-Charge and Vicar Designate at St Aidan’s Church, Leeds takes place at 7.30pm on Thursday 17 December. A coach has been organised for those who’d like to attend the service. A 53 seater coach will leave the Bull Ring at 6.30pm and return to Wakefield at 9.30pm (both promptly!) – cost £5 per person return. Tickets will be available from either the office or the Vergers on a first come first served basis, and cannot be reserved without payment. We hope the bus will be full of folks wishing Andi well as she embarks on her new role.

We will be serving drinks from the Pop-Up Cathedral whilst our poppy display is on the steps (weather permitting!). If you can volunteer for an hour between 9.00am-12noon on Wednesday 11 November please let Heidi know.

Dates for your 2016 diaries – Saturday 26 June, 7.30pm ‘Midsummer Frolics’ Andrew Clark and the Chantry’s Roland Electronic Organ. Cost £8 buffet included. Further details about tickets will follow in the New Year. Saturday 17 September, 7.30pm ‘The Magic of a Thousand Strings’. The National Youth Harp Orchestra of Great Britain. Tickets to include a buffett, now available from Unity Works, £17, Tel: 01924 831114 or £17.50 online. They will be £19 on the door. All proceeds to the Chantry Chapel.
