Readings at 09.15 and 11.00

Reading: Genesis 11.1-9

Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.' And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.' The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. And the LORD said, 'Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech.' So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Gospel Reading: John 14.8-17

Philip said to Jesus, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

Next week's readings: Romans 5.1-5 and John 16.12-15

Notices

Please join us for our Pentecost service this afternoon with the Bishop of Wakefield and Swiss gospel choir. All welcome.

There will be a summer series of Wakefield Wednesdays over four weeks in July and August. They will take place on 17, 24 and 31 July and 07 August. Each session will consist of a reflection on the gospel for the following Sunday, followed by a discussion.

Choral Evensong Thursday 13 June 18.30 We are giving thanks for the 25th anniversary of the first ordinations of women as priests in this cathedral church. Some of these women will be joining us at evensong along with Bishop John Finney (Bishop of Pontefract 1988-1995) who will be our preacher. Evensong will be followed at 19.45 by 'How to Pray' – John Pritchard. An evening for those who long to cultivate prayer, in themselves and in their parishes. To book a place please email carol.stenner@leeds.anglican.org or phone 0113 353 0281.

Community Outreach We're pleased to announce that during May the Cathedral workshops and activities were attended by 631 people. Gillian Bunn produces a monthly report which gives details of the cathedral's outreach work. Copies of the May report are available at the back of the cathedral, or can be found on the website.

The music department is pleased to report that all choristers entered for the recent RSCM Bronze and Silver award exams were successful in attaining their awards. Their medals and certificates will be presented at the RSCM festival service in the cathedral on Sunday 16 June at 16.30. We hope to see some of you there for the service.

The next Cathedral Branch Mothers' Union Meeting will be held on Monday 10 June in the Education Room, 13.30 for 14.00. The speaker is the Cathedral's Canon Precentor, Leah Vasey-Saunders. The 2018 Mothers' Union accounts will be presented during this meeting. All are welcome to attend.

As you are probably aware Canon Tony Macpherson and Revd Tim Stevens will be leaving the cathedral and taking up their new posts at the end of the summer. Their last services will be Sundays 21 July (Revd Tim) and 28 July (Canon Tony). If you wish to make a contribution towards a gift for Tony and Tim there are some special envelopes available at the back of the cathedral.

Labyrinth Retreat – Mirfield Community of the Resurrection 21 – 23 June 2019 led by Kay Barrett. The cost of the weekend is £200, which includes all meals. Full details can be viewed at <https://www.mirfield.org.uk/events/labyrinth-retreat/>

The Cathedral Shop is open from 10.15-11.15 each Sunday. It relies on volunteer staffing. New volunteers are urgently needed to maintain this commitment as well as other times during the week. If you are able to consider offering your time please have a word with one of the clergy after the service. Full training and induction will be given.

Canon Tony's installation at St Paul's North Sunderland takes place on the evening of Wednesday 11 September. We are exploring the feasibility of hiring a coach to allow members of the congregation to attend. The coach would leave the Bullring at 14.00 to arrive in North Sunderland at approximately 17.30. The service is at 19.00 and the coach would return at 21.00, due to arrive back in Wakefield at approximately 00.30. The cost would be between £10 and £20 return, depending on numbers. If you are interested in having a seat on the coach, please print your name on the list at the back of the cathedral. When we have an idea of numbers a decision will be made as to whether the trip is viable, and a further announcement made.

The Book Group will meet again on Tuesday 25 June at the home of Janet Hunt, 2 Chevet Park Court, Sandal, WF2 6QS, to discuss 'the Cut Out Girl' by Bart van Es. After a summer break we will meet on Tuesday 17 September to discuss Michele Guinness's book 'Archbishop'. Both meetings start at 19.30. Further information may be obtained from Annie Ledger or Judith Woodhead via the cathedral office.

Coin Collector - we are expecting a further visit, if you have any old coins, foreign coins or postcards please give them to Terry Rigg or the vergers.
