

THE CONSTITUTION

God has been worshipped at the heart of Wakefield for more than a thousand years, though the present building dates from the middle of the twelfth century.

When the Diocese of Wakefield was created in 1888, the Parish Church of All Saints, Wakefield, became the cathedral church of the new diocese, as Wakefield was elevated to city status, subsequently becoming the county town of the West Riding of Yorkshire. Wakefield Cathedral occupies a prominent and strategic position in the centre of the city and district of Wakefield and continues to offer an important place of welcome and sanctuary for all.

In April 2014, the dissolution of the Diocese of Wakefield, along with the dioceses of Ripon & Leeds and Bradford was followed by the creation of the new Diocese of Leeds. As a result of this reorganisation, Wakefield Cathedral shares with its sister cathedrals of Bradford and Ripon, its role as the seat of the Bishop and Mother Church of the Diocese. However, in common with our sister cathedrals, we remain a fully independent cathedral with our own constitution, statutes and governance.

Our Mission

Wakefield Cathedral seeks to offer a distinctive setting for the worship of God by building on a living tradition that will engage and inspire present and future generations. We strive to be an outward-looking community of disciples of Jesus Christ, inviting others to walk alongside us to share God's love with all the people of Wakefield and the wider Diocese of Leeds. We seek to respond to the concerns of our community and the nation. We pray daily for our Bishop, our sister cathedrals in Bradford and Ripon, and for all the parishes of our diocese.

Constitution

This Constitution was drawn up under and in accordance with the Cathedrals Measure 2021. It was approved by the Church Commissioners and came into force on 23rd February 2023. On 25th May 2023 the Cathedral was registered as a charity with the Charity Commission for England and Wales with registered charity number 1203267.
