Easter Sunday

Acts 10 34-43 Mark 16 1-8

“Don't be alarmed,” he said. “You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him.”

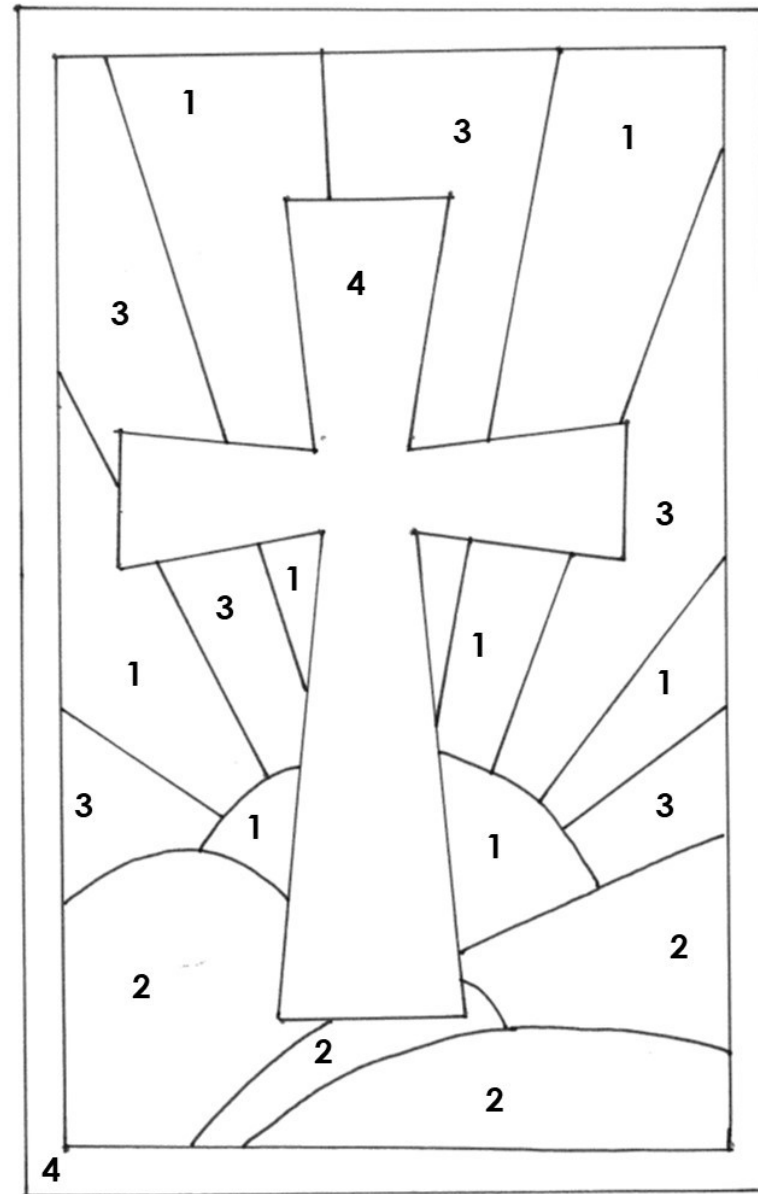

Mark 16 v6 (New International Version)

Today is Easter Sunday when Christians celebrate Jesus rising from the dead. Many of the religious leaders hated Jesus and wanted to get rid of him. They gave money to Judas, one of the disciples, to betray him. Jesus had been arrested and condemned to death. He was handed over to the Roman soldiers who crucified him. Jesus had been killed on Friday, his body had been taken down from the cross and put in a tomb. A large stone had been rolled across the entrance of the tomb. On the next Sunday Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome came to the tomb. They wanted to anoint Jesus' body and were worried about rolling the heavy stone away from the tomb's entrance. When they arrived they found the stone had been rolled away and an angel told them that Jesus had risen from the dead.
