Installation of the new Dean of Wakefield

Following a selection process run by the national church, the Bishop of Leeds has appointed The Revd Canon Dr Philip Hobday as the next Dean of Wakefield. Philip joined the team at Wakefield Cathedral in September 2022 and is currently Sub-Dean, overseeing pastoral care, learning, outreach, and safeguarding. He will take on the spiritual and administrative leadership of the Cathedral community – its staff, volunteers, and congregations – as well as joining the Deans of Ripon and Bradford in supporting the work of the Bishop of Leeds and of clergy and parishes across the diocese.

All are warmly invited to join in welcoming Canon Philip to his new role at his Installation Service on Saturday March 7th at 14:00
