Jesus Heals Two People

Hosea 5.15-6.6 Matthew 9 9-13, 18-26

While he was saying this, a ruler came and knelt before him and said, 'My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her, and she will live. Matthew 9 v18 (New International Version)

You can find a longer version of today's gospel reading in chapter 5 of the Gospel of Mark. Jesus was on his way to see the daughter of a local ruler who had just died. As he was walking there, a woman who had been ill for years reached out and touched his cloak. Jesus realised what had happened and he stopped to speak to her, 'Take heart, daughter,' he said, 'your faith has healed you.' Straight away she was healed. Jesus then carried onto the ruler's house and he told the people who were there that the girl was only sleeping. The people laughed at him because they knew she was dead. When the crowd had been sent outside, Jesus went in the house, he took the girl by the hand and she got up. Jesus had brought her back to life.
